

Please do not take away our protection from unwanted calls that are often from people who are trying to sell scams and victimize the elderly. Phone solicitations even if "legitimate" are intrusive and invasive. I feel as though some one has invaded my home when I get these calls.